WEEK 3

Growth Group Opener:

Have you ever made an incorrect assumption about someone, based on a first impression? What happened?

How do your impressions of someone shape the way you treat them?

Read James 2:1-26

What are the main themes of what James is teaching here?

What situation is James describing in v.1-13?
Where do you see such things occurring today?

Why should believers, of all people, be able to look beyond the superficial? Why should Christ's sacrifice motivate us to do this for others?

What is the relationship between faith and works?

WEEK 3

Growth Group Opener:

Read James 2:1-26

Where do you see such things occurring today?

Why should believers, of all people, be able to look beyond the superficial? Why should Christ's sacrifice motivate us to do this for others?

What is the relationship between faith and works?

Why are works important, if they are not what save you?

According to these verses, on which end of the spectrum would you say your faith currently falls?

How did Abraham's works, such as offering Isaac on the altar, demonstrate his faith?

Can you think of an example in your life of an outward demonstration of genuine faith?

What can we learn about God in this passage?

What are some ways you can put your faith into action this week?

Prayer:

Father, thank you for being trustworthy, good, and true. Thank you that our faith can rest secure in who you are. If our faith needs life breathed into it, Lord, breathe your Spirit into us and help us to grow. Help us to base my outward behavior on an inward faith that is alive, vibrant, and steady, and let us be a light to those around us because of what we do, which stems from who we are. Let who we are be found in you. In the name of Jesus, amen.
