List the opposites you find in the "if...then" statements in v.11-13.
Which is the only "if...then" in which someone will get exactly what they have sown?

What, then, are the requirements set forth for believers in v.11-13?
What might those look like as they are lived out?

What "civilian affairs" do you feel you've gotten tangled up in?
What do you need to do to reorient yourself into a posture of exclusively aiming to please your "commanding officer?"

Is there anything that God has put in your path as an opportunity to practice faithfulness?

What can we learn about God from this passage?

Is there anything you feel the Holy Spirit nudging you to look at more closely in your life?

Prayer:

Father, thank you for your faithfulness. Thank you for Jesus, who showed us how to live a faithful life as we walk with you in this life. Help us to die to ourselves and endure the hardships we encounter with grace and love, all because we have our eyes fixed on you and your call on our lives. In the name of Jesus, amen.
