

WEEK 1

Growth Group Opener:

What is the first thing you notice when you meet someone new?

Read: Genesis 1: 26-31

What does it mean to be made in God's image, in His likeness?

How does bearing God's image impact our relationship with Him?

How should mutually bearing God's image affect our relationships with other believers?

How should mutually bearing God's image affect our relationships with non-believers?

What was the job of the man and woman God created?

WEEK 1

Growth Group Opener:

What is the first thing you notice when you meet someone new?

Read: Genesis 1: 26-31

What does it mean to be made in God's image, in His likeness?

How does bearing God's image impact our relationship with Him?

How should mutually bearing God's image affect our relationships with other believers?

How should mutually bearing God's image affect our relationships with non-believers?

What was the job of the man and woman God created?

How should being God's appointed caretakers of the earth shape the way we care for His creation, for nature, for the environment?

What can we learn about God from this passage?

How does God's command to be fruitful and multiply still apply for believers today?

What might need to shift in your life to allow more fruitfulness that multiplies?

Is there anything you feel the Holy Spirit nudging you to look at more closely?

Action step:

What part of God's likeness do you want to see more of in your life? Commit to pray about that this week, asking God to conform you more to His image in this area.

Prayer:

Father, thank you for creating each one of us in your image, to look and feel like you. We repent for the ways we have mangled your image in our hearts and our lives, and we pray that you would gently restore each of those parts of us that need polishing or repair. Shape us through our time with you this week, that we would be a more accurate reflection of your love and care in the world, and in our relationships. In the name of Jesus, amen.

How should being God's appointed caretakers of the earth shape the way we care for His creation, for nature, for the environment?

What can we learn about God from this passage?

How does God's command to be fruitful and multiply still apply for believers today?

What might need to shift in your life to allow more fruitfulness that multiplies?

Is there anything you feel the Holy Spirit nudging you to look at more closely?

Action step:

What part of God's likeness do you want to see more of in your life? Commit to pray about that this week, asking God to conform you more to His image in this area.

Prayer:

Father, thank you for creating each one of us in your image, to look and feel like you. We repent for the ways we have mangled your image in our hearts and our lives, and we pray that you would gently restore each of those parts of us that need polishing or repair. Shape us through our time with you this week, that we would be a more accurate reflection of your love and care in the world, and in our relationships. In the name of Jesus, amen.