

Growth Group Opener:

Where in your life have you seen growth from where you used to be to where you are now...perhaps a hobby you've learned, a skill you've mastered, a characteristic you've developed, etc.? What helped produce that change?

Read: Romans 6:1-14

Have you ever heard someone say something like, "oh I can do whatever I want and it's ok, because God will forgive me?"

How might Paul respond to that kind of statement, given what we've read today?

Write out the definition of sanctification.

Does being sanctified mean that we will never sin again? Why or why not?

When you consider your life from when you accepted Christ until now, where can you see God's work of sanctification, of growth in holiness in your life?

Growth Group Opener:

Where in your life have you seen growth from where you used to be to where you are now...perhaps a hobby you've learned, a skill you've mastered, a characteristic you've developed, etc.? What helped produce that change?

Read: Romans 6:1-14

Have you ever heard someone say something like, "oh I can do whatever I want and it's ok, because God will forgive me?"

How might Paul respond to that kind of statement, given what we've read today?

Write out the definition of sanctification.

Does being sanctified mean that we will never sin again? Why or why not?

When you consider your life from when you accepted Christ until now, where can you see God's work of sanctification, of growth in holiness in your life?

In v.4, what is the ability to walk in this new kind of life compared to? What does that tell us about the power behind the new life we're offered?

What in your life have you 'guarded' by resisting change, partly because you know you will be forgiven?

What would it take for you to crucify that thing so that it no longer enslaves you?

What can we learn about God from this passage?

Are you fully walking in the newness of life God offers to you as a follower of Jesus?

Is there anything you feel the Holy Spirit nudging you to look at more closely?

Prayer:

Father, you are so holy, so good, and yet so full of grace and mercy. Thank you for loving us so much that you shape us into the image of your son as we walk closer and closer with you. Thank you for saving us from our sin, from ourselves, and for setting us free to walk in a new way with you. Use us as willing tools to build your kingdom. May we be conduits of your grace and love to the world around us. In the name of Jesus, amen.

In v.4, what is the ability to walk in this new kind of life compared to? What does that tell us about the power behind the new life we're offered?

What in your life have you 'guarded' by resisting change, partly because you know you will be forgiven?

What would it take for you to crucify that thing so that it no longer enslaves you?

What can we learn about God from this passage?

Are you fully walking in the newness of life God offers to you as a follower of Jesus?

Is there anything you feel the Holy Spirit nudging you to look at more closely?

Prayer:

Father, you are so holy, so good, and yet so full of grace and mercy. Thank you for loving us so much that you shape us into the image of your son as we walk closer and closer with you. Thank you for saving us from our sin, from ourselves, and for setting us free to walk in a new way with you. Use us as willing tools to build your kingdom. May we be conduits of your grace and love to the world around us. In the name of Jesus, amen.